During the Summer quarter, THE MONDAY REPORT will be used to communicate news concerning the college's change from the quarter to the semester system. If you have information, dates, calendars, and other pertinent information that you would like to have included, please give it to Margaret Hinton, 391-2219, or Lucy Kubiszyn, 391-2221.

Team 1: CURRICULUM/INSTRUCTOR/SCHEDULE LOAD - Rosemary Blethen

This committee has met and has made recommendations to the administration. Each full-time faculty member will teach 15-16 credit hours per semester.

Team 2: Student Services - Randy Jarrell, chair

Media campaign for Fall semester will begin July 1 when six billboards will go up across town. Print ads with the schedule for Fall semester will run in the TUSCALOOSA NEWS. Letters to students enrolled in the spring went out with grades. Letters have also been sent to superintendents, principals, as well as to accrediting agencies.

Team 3: Remedial/Development - Camille, Cochrane, chair

This committee met and its recommendations are as follows: Developmental English, mathematics and reading courses should be four credit hours. Statistical data is needed to correlate established ASSET competencies with success in the course.

Team 4: Support Services - Bill Aldridge, chair

Committee will meet next week.

Team 5: Articulation and Calendar - Diane Layton, chair

This committee has put together the college's calendar for the year. Please note the calendar at the end of the Monday Report.

Team 6: Process Coordination - Lynn Cundiff, chair

This committee met and discussed some of the problems that may be associated with the change to the semester system. Tuition was discussed during the meeting. The cost for 15 semester hours will approximately be $517.00. The committee recommended that 30% of a student's tuition could be deferred past registration if prior arrangements are made.

Team 7: Workshop Training - Martha Ann Hill, chair

Dr. Cundiff met with this committee last week, and they will possibly hold a series of workshops for faculty and staff during August.

Team 8: Documentation and Assessment - Jim Purcell and Karen Crumbie, co-chairs

This committee will meet with various focus groups over the next several weeks in order to identify perceptions and opinions concerning the change to the semester system. Several classes will be surveyed as well as a group of faculty and staff. Members of the college's Public Relations Advisory committee will meet on July 7 with the committee in order to obtain ideas and opinions from community leaders. The next meeting of this committee is scheduled for Wednesday, July 24, at 11 a.m. in the music room on Skyland Boulevard Campus.
